Consignment Tax

@4067A. SHRI VITHALRAO MADHAVRAO JADHAV;
SHRIMATI SURYAKANTA JAYAWANTRAO PATIL:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state;

(a) whether it is a fact that Maharashtra Government has urged the Central Government to take early steps for the introduction of a Bill in Parliament to enable it to levy consignment tax; and

(b) if so, what action Government have taken thereon?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF EXPENDITURE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI B. K. GADHVI); (a) and (b) The Chief Minister of Maharashtra wrote in Februray, 1987 suggesting early legislation for levy of tax on inter-state consignment of goods. As some of the issues involved are yet to be sorted out, it has not been possible to take a final decision.

@@Prviously Unstarred Question 3555, transferred from the 25th August, 1987.

(6) if so, what are the reasons for violation of such orders; and

(e) what action is proposed against those officers who have not implemented the aforesaid orders in respect of daily wage workers working under them in the offices?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS SHRI BIREN SINGH ENGTI). (a) to (e) Factories Act provides that where a worker so defined under the Factories Act works in a factory for more than 9 hours in any day or for more than 48 hours in any week, he shall in respect of overtime work be entitled to wages at the rate twice the ordinary rate of wages.

The above provision is not applicable to Central Government employees and persons engaged on daily wages in different Ministries and offices who are not covered by the definition of worker under the facto ries Act and the question of issuing orders for payment of overtime allowance at double the rate under the Factories Act in respect of them does net arise.
